NEW BUSINESS UPDATES

5-6-2020 The Small Business Administration (SBA) Economic Injury Disaster Loan Program portal (EIDL) has reopened as a result of funding authorized by Congress through the Paycheck Protection Program and Healthcare Enhancement Act. The legislation has provided additional funding for farmers and ranchers and certain other agricultural businesses affected by COVID-19.

Agricultural businesses include businesses engaged in the legal production of food and fiber, ranching, and raising of livestock, aquaculture, and all other farming and agricultural related industries (as defined by section 18(b) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 647(b)). Eligible agricultural businesses must have 500 or fewer employees. Applications can be completed on-line at: APPLICATION

Free Face Masks Are Still Available to Businesses & Nonprofits – 3-ply surgical face masks are still available by request [25 max], as supplies last, for your business or nonprofit, thanks to an anonymous local donation. Send request to: EcoDevDirector@southbury-ct.gov

5-4-2020 Governor Lamont Announces Statewide Launch of Free Online Job Training Program for Unemployment Claimants During COVID-19 Emergency, SkillUp CT Allows Jobseekers to Upgrade Skills From Their Own Homes

Governor Ned Lamont has announced the statewide expansion of a program that will make free online learning licenses available to recipients of unemployment insurance, including those who have been impacted by the economic fallout of the COVID-19 public health crisis. The SkillUp CT program will significantly expand access to comprehensive online course work from a leading global provider for thousands of Connecticut residents. Originally launched in eastern Connecticut, a sustained rollout of the program across the state over the coming weeks will enable recently laid-off workers to upgrade their skills and earn industry-recognized certifications even while the doors to most brick-and mortar education and training providers remain closed. For the full release click:
